Without Apology: On Call For God gives a sampling of the numerous assignments that God entrusted to my hands over a period of thirty years. These assignments afforded me the opportunity to have a ring side view of many human dilemmas, trials, and even victories. These experiences involved many, varied arenas. They took me from closing down a cult to pulpit preaching, to working and living in the projects for a year, to performing poetry in diverse settings, to assisting pastors facilitate deliverance for their congregants. This hands-on ministry included and developed me in the affairs of the Kingdom of God. I went wherever He led or sent me. I decided as Jesus did that My meat is to do the will of him that sent me (see John 4: 34). My life, more than my words, was anointed to address situations. This work was also my fire baptisms, my school of lifelong learning. This calling was not my choice, but it was the Father's choice for me. He has never apologized for it; so neither have I. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
