Ladies Night at Finbars Hotel

By Maeve Binchy

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt P. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 257 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.3in. x 0.7in. A year has passed since the closing of Finbars Hotel, a down-on-its-heels hotel on the Dublin quays. Now, with a rock star as its new owner, it has once more opened its doors-and Finbars has become an ultra-chic gathering spot. Ladies Night at Finbars Hotel describes one night in its newly illustrious surroundings-a night filled with adventure and comic romp. In one room a man surreptitiously helps his wife's friend get pregnant, while next door a businesswoman battles her father. And down the hall, a nun struggles with the most important mission of her life. A fabulous mix of pathos and high humor, this is a sardonic tour of the gamut of human experience told by Ireland's finest modern storytellers. Maeve Binchy has written numerous bestsellers, most recently Tara Road. Dermot Bolger is the author of six novels and edited The Vintage Book of Contemporary Irish Fiction. Clare Boylan has written six novels and several nonfiction works, including The Literary Companion to Cats. Emma Donoghue is the author of Stir Fry and Kissing the Witch, among other works. Anne Haverty's writing has been short-listed for...
