The staff there was extremely gracious in explaining their work and sharing their excitement for discovery. I believe the Smithsonian has resources and insights unlike any other organization. It has subject matter experts who are also com-mitted to public service. Hearing from the worlds largest museum and research complex seems wise as we determine how to manage our diverse federal efforts in science education and research. I look forward to hearing about this topic from our witnesses today. With that I yield back. The prepared statement of Mr. Ehlers follows: REPAED TATEMENT OF EPRESENTATIVE ERNON HLERS P S R V J. E Thank you, Chairman Lipinski. I am pleased that the Committee is holding this important hearing today. The Smithsonian has a unique role in science and education. When I served on the Committee on House Administration, my colleagues and I were responsible for overseeing this important institution. I did my best to learn everything I could about Smithsonians various research entities, and especially its work to improve STEM education. A number of years ago I took a trip with the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee to Panama, and while I was there I saw a sign for the Smithsonian Tropical Research Institution and decided to stop by. Despite the fact that I arrived unexpectedly, the staff there was extremely gracious in explaining their work and sharing their excitement for discovery. I believe the Smithsonian has resources and insights unlike any other organiza-tion....
