Arbeit komplett in Englisch , abstract: On behalf of international e-commerce law there are a lot of different entities that deal with international trade law. For example there is the UNCITRAL (United Nations Commissions on International Trade Law) embodied in the United Nations. In this context the UNCITRAL s report UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Commerce has to be mentioned. The problem of UNCITRAL is that it cannot produce any binding instruments on international basis. It can only give recommendations for the national regulations of the membership states. The states themselves can choose to follow these model laws by UNCITRAL. On the other side there is the WTO (World Trade Organisation), which prepares on behalf of its members international treaties. In...
