An effectual method to augment small livings; and for the more honourable support of those clergymen, who have no livings at all: II. A proposal to make the corporation of clergymens sons more useful to its members: III. A scheme, for the relief of the South Sea sufferers in distress, together with proposals to buy lands in America, and to make the same useful and profitable, as well as to employ great numbers of His Majesty s poor subjects: IV. A rational way for the promulgation of the gospel in America; and for having a sufficient number of bishops there to compleat baptism, with the means to provide a sufficient support for their dignity, by money to be laid out in our own manufactures: V. A method to prevent dangerous fires: to which are added, the opinions of some learned men, both foreigners and of our own country, concerning the Church of England: with part of Archbishop Tillotson s...
