R. Hayhurst; Zoology and Entomology, J. S. Hine. The Ohio Journal of Science is to be considered as a continuation of The Ohio Naturalist. It is hoped that with the wider field covered, it may interest a much larger number of the scientific people of the state, and be financially supported so that it may soon develop into a journal of high standard. It is the intention of the present Editors, with the large field before them, to publish results of research as well as articles of general interest in the advancement of Science. On the natural history side the aim at present will be to pay more especial attention to the biology, geology and geography of Ohio, but articles dealing with any other region will be acceptable. The Editors for the present year are as follows: John H. Schaffner - Editor. James S. Hine - Associate Editor (Business). Frederick W. Ives-...
