Is Roy Home

By Randall Mawer

Avignon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 132 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. For the many fans of Randall Mawer's first novel, Frogs Field, his new teen fiction novel, Is Roy Home is a long-awaited treat. Roy Hough, Frog Mott's best friend, is now a high school student as is another of Frog's friends, Arthur Shell. Roy is a star of his high school baseball team while Arthur is a loner, befriended only by Roy and Connie Dunn, Roy's friend and the female manager of the boys baseball team. The story follows the fortunes of Roy's high school team through a season, Arthur's blossoming into a sociable young grownup, the burgeoning relationship between Roy and Connie and the role all three of the young friends find themselves in when Roy's mother inherits a house and money and becomes a potential victim of a young tennis pro who wants to take advantage of her. This is a story of small-town, Midwest America in the 1950s with all the endearing qualities that make that era's memories remain in the minds of many as one of our country's last times of innocence.
