Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .Tennessee Coal, Iron Kaiiroad Company at Ensley is absolutely choked with orders nntil the close of this year, so much so that the Seaboard Air line was compelled to order 30,000 tons from another mill. Consolidation talk has had no influence on practical doings in the market, it being a foregone conclusion Here that it is a questiion between Hoadly and others who have control of the majority of the stock of the Tennessee company, and the Hanover National Bank crowd. The mine strike is still on with the force with which it started. The question will come up again on July 1 when the operators who signed the scale will be called upon to see about It for another year. The largest operators have fought a stout fight. Their coal output has been cut down and so has their output of iron, but they are still running the mines on the open shop basis. Meanwhile the miners have been well supported. It can easily be seen from this that neither side has gained any very oreltiable advantage. It is still an open question. Philadelphia.--The local demand for all iron and steel products continues strong and prices are firm with an upward trend. The demand for billets, sheets, tin plate and bars is exceedingly active and mills report that they are more or less behind on deliveries. The whole finished Iron and steel trade shows the same activity and a fair tonnage in structural steel was...
