His problem is that he's gay and not out. His sex life is very limited and nearly non-existent. To increase his chances of finding someone to make his life fuller, he moves to Green Bay. In the hopes of meeting someone for a little sex, he spends some time in a park that looks like a good cruising place. In no time he meets a group of just out of high school teens that turn out to be very interested in the twenty-six year old Reed. While he's enjoying the teens he meets a pizza delivery guy who is also very friendly and Reed's life goes from very little sex to a sex filled romp, and a chance for love. Life is good in Green Bay.
